Hands-On Healing Workshop with Dr. Chad Sato

The information shared in The Gift of Spirit Hands-On Healing Workshop offers a defined way to use Dr. Chad's basic techniques in order to enhance your own healing experience, as well as to help friends and loved ones with theirs.

Message from Dr. Chad: "We are currently moving into a time where more people are awakening to their true Selves and focusing on "self-worth care." There is a wake-up call stirring within many of us prompting us to move to new levels of empowerment within our own Beings. I have created this workshop in order to share with you my personal methods to help you to consciously traverse the tight rope of balance into Healing and Self-Empowerment."
